

The Henley Partnership : Press Release

Spectacular Start & New Ideas for Henley Living Advent Calendar 2012

This year's Henley Living Advent Calendar gets off to a spectacular start on Saturday Dec 1st at 6.15 – 6.30pm in the Market Square.

Henley-based, world-renowned stuntman, Gary Connery will be opening the event. "We normally don't reveal our performers in advance, so as to keep the surprise element of the Advent Calendar. " said Chair of the Living Advent Calendar and Henley Partnership, Julie Perigo. "We can't tell you exactly what Gary will do, but he is going to make this a unique start to a unique event. If you liked him as the Queen, parachuting into the Olympics, you'll enjoy this evening, so come along to watch !"

There are a number of other new attractions to look forward to this year, as more businesses and local organisations get involved. These include free Christmas Treats and occasionally Goody Bags at many of the Venues. Also, to raise more money for the three Charities (Camp Mohawk, Chiltern Centre & Sue Ryder Care) Raffle tickets will be on sale at every evening's performance, with over 30 wonderful prizes donated by local pubs, restaurants, clothes stores and other businesses.

Look out for the 'limited edition' red beanie hats which will be on sale too, generously donated by The Head Partnership.

For photographs and video clips of each evening's event during 1st – 24th December go to www.livingadventcalendar.co.uk

The Living Advent Calendar is a unique joint initiative between The Henley Partnership and Henley Town Council, and is sponsored by The Henley Standard / Higgs Group as well as Invesco Perpetual, The Head Partnership, Sothebys International Realty, Towergate Insurance and SODC.

Nov 12th 2012